chapel.

IN THE CITY JAIL .- There are now confined in the city jail 102 prisoners, of which 26 are white men, 40 negro men, 33 negro women, and 3 white women. Four of th women-two white and two black-are lunatics; one of them is the unfortunate creature known as the "Hollywood ghost," As they are entirely harmless, they are not'subjected to any more restraint than the other women, whose apartment they share.

Twenty negroes and six whites are employed in the chain-gang, which is divided into three squads, respectively controlled by Captain Wilkinson, and deputies Henry O'Dwyer and Tucker Davis. Wilkinson's party has lately been employed about the old City Hall, removing turniture, fixtures, &c., to the new temporary building. Davis's squad is under orders from the Board of Health, and has been sweeping the streets. O'Dwyer's is engaged in cleaning out culverts. The whole gang goes out at 8 o'clock in the morning and works until 3 in the evening -seven hours per day.

Among the prisoners is James Campbell, negro, who is serving a term of six months for robbery. At the expiration of his jail service he will be transferred to the penitentiary to remain twelve months for burglary. Philip Clark (negro), under sentence of five years in the penitentiary for housebreaking, and Henry Jordan, sentenced to five years in the penitentiary for felonious assault upon Mr. Priddy, toll-gate keeper on WANTED, PURCHASERS FOR assault upon Mr. Priddy, toll-gate keeper on the Williamsburg road, are in jail awaiting the law's delay upon their application for a new trial.

Chesterfield county is represented by Frank Thacker, a negro sent from Manchester for twelve months for stealing iron; Elsy Payne, for three months for beating his wife; James Stanly, charged with horsestealing; and Eli Henson, from Clover Hill.

Jailor Cummins was sick yesterday, but his polite deputy, Mr. Franklin, and a gentlemanly prisoner who has been detailed as clerk, showed our reporter all "the mys-All the prisoners looked hale and hearty, and the institution is neatly whitewashed and clean from top to bottom. PARDONED .- The Governor yesterday pardoned Robert S. Clarke, who was, on the 6th of January, sentenced by the Hustings Court of Richmond to one year's confinement in the city jail for petit larceny. Pardon was granted because "the physician to the city jail, who is experienced and eminent in his profession, certifies with positiveness that the prisoner has the disease of consumption in one of its worst forms, that further coninement will hasten his death, and that his life can neither be saved nor prolonged without his discharge."

TRICKED .- A commission of lunacy was held yesterday at the city jail in the case of Preston Watkins, a supposed lunatic. He proved to be sane, but laboring under the one clerk be elected to serve both bodies, and wife. He says he begins to die every spring now called, be hereafter designated as serwhen the grass commences to grow. His geant-at-arusfeet die first, and as the grass grows longer death creeps slowly towards his head; but it stops in July, when the grass has attained its University Alumni Club is to be held in the growth, and leaves enough life in him to get new City Hall (Hustings Court-room) tothrough the winter. of Richmond, with a jury, has been engaged for several days trying the suit of Pilcher vs. Lee George, administrator of W. O. George. Mr. James Alfred Jones and Judge W. W. Crump appear for the plaintiff, and Holladay & White, of Richmond, and Mr. Shippen, of Philadelphia, for the detendant. The point to be decided by the jury is whether William O. George was legally married to Caroline Jackson (colored), in Philadelphis, in 1869, as alleged. A very large amount of property is involved. The argument was commenced yesterday, and will very likely be concluded to-day. During Mr. Jones's argument yesterday Lee George, who is the son of W. O. George by Caroline Jackson, fainted in court.
